Sandra's design is influenced by nature, art, and life experiences. Her friendly manner - combined with her trend and material knowledge - results in great design collaboration with her clients. Delighting a homeowner motivates Sandra. Her ability to share ideas and coordinate the project from beginning to end creates an easy and enjoyable experience for her customers. Clear communication, an understanding of her customer's style, and a little bit of fun mixed in along the way - that's Sandra's formula for creating spaces her clients love to come home to.

Life is busy with two children and a wonderful husband, but Sandra finds time for family dinners, warm summer nights on the deck, outdoor activities, and her faith.
