Vanessa is the perfect combination of expertise and creativity. Her extensive industry experience and product knowledge help her to tackle the toughest design challenges and assures her clients that their project is in the best of hands. Her natural curiosity and passion for design keep her ideas fresh and innovative. “There are endless things to draw inspiration from if you just open your eyes and look around.”

When it comes to creating a truly unique design, Vanessa understands it all comes down to the details. “Combining classic elements with something unexpected can make a design stand out and really capture the personality of a client. Incorporating textures, patterns, and color in the right combinations can make all the difference in helping clients love their new space.”
